Knapp data sources (preliminary draft).doc

Hi Phil:

Attached is a preliminary version of Appendix A of my report, which discusses the data sources for each part of my analysis for my report on "Economic Significance of the Bristol Bay Commercial Salmon Fishery."

I'll probably be making some changes, corrections and additions. But I hope this can serve your needs for the moment.

I prefer to organize my "list of references" in this way because it makes it easier for readers to see where data came from.
